

Emotion Studies

Vol. 1, No. 1, October 2015

CONTENTS

Makoto Nakamura Foreword .....	1
Special Feature: Social coexistence and emotion
Masato Sawada and Takayuki Ishikawa Introduction .....	2
Hiroko Endo Maintaining anger and empathy: Structured writing for anger reduction by taking new perspectives .....	3
Kengo Nawata “Our” emotions: The role of emotions in intergroup conflict .....	9
Tomoyuki Kanetsuna Insights into Japanese ijime through a comparison with bullying in England: Focusing on children’s group formation and their negative emotions against victims .....	17
Hidefumi Hitokoto The intersection of bullying and cultural mindset .....	23
Tomoko Ikegami Stumbling blocks to harmonious coexistence: Despisement and expulsion in egalitarian culture .....	29
Masafumi Yoneyama Racial prejudice in nineteenth-century American fiction .....	36
Yumi Endo Empathy and living together in harmony in a globalized society .....	42
Nanako Shimizu Emotions in peace and conflict studies: An essay on the need for interdisciplinary research .....	50
Hideki Ohira Principles to emerge empathy .....	56
Makoto Nakamura An invitation to the interdisciplinary and cross-cutting emotion studies by sharing research results across all fields of science: In the case of social coexistence and emotion .....	63
Seminar: Emotion and the unconscious
Hideya Kitamura Introduction .....	73
Shunsuke Shimoda Measuring affect using the Japanese version of Implicit Positive and Negative Affect Test (IPANAT) .....	74
Naoaki Kawakami Mere exposure effect and the unconscious: Where does liking come from? .....	81
Noriya Watanabe The interaction between emotional response and learning process .....	87
News .....	93