

Subject: Call for pre-conferences: International Society for Research on Emotion, July 15-18 2022, Los Angeles

 Apologies for cross-posting **

We are happy to announce that the call for submissions for pre-conferences held in concert with the biennial ISRE (International Society for Research on Emotion) conference is now open. Pre-conferences will be held on 15th of July 2022 at the University of Southern California, USA.

The main ISRE conference and associated pre-conferences each provide exciting opportunities to meet international colleagues, present your work, and stay up-to-date with the latest developments in emotion research. ISRE members study emotions from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives, including psychology, neuroscience, philosophy, sociology, linguistics, affective computing, history, anthropology, and design (<http://isre22.org>).

ISRE2022 welcomes pre-conference proposals on any topic related to the field of emotion science. Previous pre-conferences include (but are not limited to) Affective Computing, Emotion Development, Social Dimensions of Emotion, and Culture and Emotions.

If you would like to submit a proposal for an ISRE conference, please prepare a 1 page PDF that includes:

1. Title of pre-conference
2. Names of organizers each with affiliations and contact details
3. Summary (up to 400 words) describing the key questions, relevance to emotion science, and the aims of the symposium
4. Provisional line-up of the speakers and their topics

Please send your submission by email to Gale Lucas at lucas@ict.usc.edu with the subject heading 'ISRE2022 Preconference Proposal' by 30th November 2021 11:59 pm International Date Line West (IDLW; UTC-12). Confused by timezone conversions? Check out worldtimebuddy (don't forget to select the date 30 November 2021).

ISRE2022 will host a maximum of 6 pre-conferences. All proposals will be reviewed by the pre-conference chairs, Gale Lucas and Rachael Jack and will be evaluated on the following criteria: (a) relevance to emotion science, (b) interest to the ISRE community, (c) the novelty/groundbreaking nature of the topic, and (d) potential to advance knowledge and stimulate new lines of research.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Deadline for pre-conference proposal submissions: 30th November 2021 11:59 pm IDLW
Decision outcomes announced: Early December 2021

Questions? Please contact Gale Lucas at lucas@ict.usc.edu or Rachael Jack Rachael.Jack@glasgow.ac.uk.

We are looking forward to welcoming you!
